MISS MARGARET B. FORBES

Several Charming Visitors Honored at Dinner-Dance

Several charming visitors will be among the dinner-dance at the Country club on Saturday evening when a delicious spring menu will be served, followed by informal dancing in which members of the various parties will join.

One of the loveliest affairs of the evening will be that given by Mrs. C. King, complimenting Mrs. L. L. King, of New York, formerly Miss Charlotte Smith, of this city. Covers will be laid for 25 on an elegantly appointed table, which will be beautifully decorated with golden juncos, pink tulips and sweetpeas, arranged in baskets caught with graceful bows of pink and gold tulle, an artistic touch will be added by pink tapers burning in silver candlesticks. The hostess will charmingly greet the guests at the entrance, while the centerpieces of the table will wear a dainty Lillie model of taffeta with lace draperies caught with French flowers.

Miss Nancy Farnsworth Boyd, of Toronto, the lovely young guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Farnsworth, will be the honoree at the dinner-dance. The evening, tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Farnsworth.

An exquisite decorative scheme will be carried out in yellow and pink anemones with watermelon pink tulips, arranged in French baskets. The occasion the attractive honoree will be given in white satin embroidered in pink with a corsage bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Samuel Richard Leatherman, entertained at her guests Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lucas Fontaine, of Fort Worth, Tex., the latter formerly Miss Mary Abbey Leatherman, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dea Brode, the latter formerly Miss Edna Arrington, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Galloway, of Copper Hill, Ala., the latter formerly Miss Miriam Mooney, Mrs. Fontaine, in whose honor the dinner was given, was attractively covered in midnight blue satin draped with spangled net with touches of gold lace. A basket of pink anemones and tulips formed the centerpiece of the table where the guests were seated to enjoy the delicious menu.

Another charming visitor, who was a special complimentary guest at one of the delightful informal parties of the evening, was Mrs. Nettie Miller, of Georgia, the house guest of Mrs. R. L. Leach, who wore a dainty Lillie model of taffeta and lace.

REX CLUB DEBUTANTE IS ONCE MORE CHARMING LOCAL VISITOR

Rex Club Entertains With Elaborate Children's Ball

The annual children's ball tendered by members of the Rex club on Saturday afternoon was planned along elaborate lines and provided one of the most thoroughly delightful affairs ever enjoyed by the little ones and daughters of the club members.

The spacious ballroom had been transformed for the occasion into a beautiful lawn, with a box house and young trees, and the various ages, beautiful scenes being completed by the setting for a children's lawn party.

In addition to dancing many novel features were enjoyed by the little guests of the afternoon. There were several interesting contests called to the various ages, beautiful prizes being presented to the winners. For the tiny tots the prizes were a large, natural-looking elephant for the little girl and a large monkey for the little boy.

For the four to six-year-olds, the prize for the little girl was a beautiful doll and for the boy the prize was a cannon. Between the ages of six and nine the prize for the girl was a doll and for the boy the prize was a tent, while the prize for the girl in the nine to 12 group was a vanity purse.

The Rex Y. M. H. club, Madison avenue and Dunlap street.

An unusually interesting program has been arranged for the little ones and daughters of the club members, including an up-to-date musical program with many novel features under the direction of Mrs. Max Sandheimer. All members are urged to attend. Tickets may be obtained through Mrs. Albert Wolf, Hemlock 2614.

AN IMPORTANT ELEMENT

Science has recently given a high place to woody fiber as an element of the human diet.

No less an authority than Dr. Irving Fisher, of Yale, declares that we need at least an ounce of this fiber per day.

Fortunately, this important element abounds in one of the pleasures of the table—the succulent fresh vegetables served at CHILDS.

POPULAR JUNE BRIDE-TO-BE HONOREE AT AFTERNOON PARTY

Miss Gene Nobsey, whose marriage to Mr. Clarence Martin, of Owensboro, Ky., will be one of the most beautiful planned showers of the day afternoons given by members of the Women's auxiliary of the Methodist church, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shepherd, on Walker avenue.

The dining table was handsomely draped and made a pretty picture, the centerpiece, which was unique and original, being a mirror which represented a miniature sea of matrimony upon which was launched the ship of love. The small ocean palace, which was the handiwork of Mr. Fred Soderstrom, was a perfect representation of a transatlantic steamer. Life savers of after-dinner merriment were conspicuously arranged on the decks while other necessary articles for the voyage were there in perfect form.

A splendid program was presented by Miss Gene Nobsey, who, with Miss Pence and Katherine McKee, Miss Strehl and Mrs. C. C. McCaskill, who also in receiving the guests. A delicious ice course, in which Miss Nobsey was the close of the afternoon.

Miss Nobsey is a popular member of the auxiliary and has a host of friends who learn with interest of her approaching marriage.

Other attractive premarital affairs will be given in her honor.

RAINBOW SHOWER FOR TWO

MISS EMILY LANDRUM, whose marriage to Mr. William Bryant Wilson will be solemnized on Tuesday evening, April 22, and Miss Florence Crumpton, who will become the bride of Mr. Joseph Martin, of De Witt, Mo., on Thursday, April 23, were the honorees at an attractively planned rainbow shower given by the primary department of the First Baptist Sunday school, of which the young ladies are teachers, on Saturday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Altmeppen on Vinton avenue.

A rainbow reflecting the many shades will be used, with flowers and ferns as an artistic decoration. The pot of gold that looked for by many will be filled for the fortunate bride-to-be, by which the drawing of one of the many prizes will cause the pot to swing when favors, gifts and confetti will be showered upon the fair honorees.

Following the presentation of the gifts a delightful program will be rendered and contents enjoyed for which pretty prizes will be given and later on in the room of hearts will be served. The Misses Landrum and Crumpton have been complimented with numerous gifts and a beautiful program will be rendered and contents enjoyed for which pretty prizes will be given and later on in the room of hearts will be served.
